

Brookhaven's Volunteers Matters

Brookhaven's Volunteers' Pumpkin Patch

Volunteers worked hard to put a special touch on our pumpkins this year. Thank you goes to Maxine McGee, Joyce Hughes, Polly Dean, Annie Tillman, Sandra Coleman and her son, and to many more volunteers for all your hard work. Our finished product was just beautiful, as you can see, and we are looking forward to next year.

Volunteers Polly Dean and Annie Tillman are seen in the photo at the left putting on a few finishing touches for our pumpkins.

Volunteers had a great time with the pumpkin patch this year.

Exchange Club

Pictured above is Volunteer Coordinator, Iris Waldrop as she spoke to the Exchange Club in Brookhaven. Thanks to volunteer Don Walley for setting up the speaking engagement at Exchange Club. If you know of a group Iris could speak with to share our ministry, please call.

We welcome our new Volunteers (left) Carla Byrd and Pam Nelson to the right.

We are very excited about what both of these ladies bring to our ministry. Please join me in wishing them a warm welcome to Hospice Ministries.

Angels Attic gives support to Hospice Ministries.

Hospice Ministries' Brookhaven office recently received a check from Angels Attic. Pictured is Iris Waldrop, accepting the check from Sue Minter, representative of Angels Attic. If you ever have the opportunity to take items or buy items at Angels Attic, please do for they have been a great supporter for us.

Wal-Mart Employees continue their support.

Wal-Mart employees Randy Martin and Ronnie Adams gave their time on a windy October morning to do yard work for a couple of our families. These men volunteer their time on their days off! What a blessing they have been to our ministry. Thank you, gentlemen!

Golden Corral donates Dinners

November 23, the manager of Golden Corral in McComb graciously donated 50 Thanksgiving meals to be delivered to many of our families to ensure they had a hot Thanksgiving meal. Pictured are Leo Caire, Manager of Golden Corral & Suzannah Britt, PCC of Brookhaven Office.

February is our Annual Soup & Cornbread month. Volunteers, please bring homemade soup to the Office, McComb or Brookhaven, any day in the month in February. Please bring it in a sealed container ready for delivery.

Quarterly Meeting

Hospice Ministries' Brookhaven Memorial Service

Our Memorial Service was held on November 23rd. It was beautiful and enjoyed by all. Our own volunteer, Wayne McGee, sang several beautiful songs. We were also entertained by "The Smiths" featuring the grandson in-law of volunteer Faye Watts, Justin Smith with his sisters and his friend Maurice West.

Trey Waldrop

Trey Waldrop, Minister of Students, FBC Summit, MS brought words of encouragement. He is the son of Doyle & Iris Waldrop.

Thanks so much to Volunteers Marie Burke, Sue Smith, Gretchen Parsons, Keith McDaniel, and Floyd Mathis, who helped prepare food, served and handled the cleanup.

Thank you to Mrs. Fay Watts for bringing Mr. Raymond who helped with our set up and to Mary Barner for helping with decorations.

None of this would have been possible without all of your help. Hope all of you have a very Merry Christmas

*Life is a gift
given to share with others
but for a brief moment.
Through sharing this gift,
we learn about the process of dying.
We learn what is most important in life.
Our conversations take on new meaning.
Our body, mind and soul
bond in companionship.
And the process of living and dying
touches us and those around us, forever.*

*At Hospice Ministries we believe that every human being has the right to a quality end-of-life experience.
